

Joseph Pyne is an active member of cultural organizations and programs in Lowell. He is a longtime supporter of the Whistler House Museum of Art and the Lowell Association of the Blind. He serves on the City of Lowell Monument Committee and was a past Chairperson of the Lowell Cultural Council. Joe's professional experience includes working at Paychex, Inc. as Regional Training Manager and enjoying a long career as at Shreve Crump and Low and at Cartier. He is graduate of the University of Massachusetts, Lowell, and lives in Lowell.